Forecast for Tuesday 16 Feb 2021

Weather: Occasional rain and summit snow in early hours, briefly heavy, the snow mainly above 1000m, but with blizzards likely on the Cairngorm Plateau. This clearing to more scattered showers by morning. The day will then be mostly bright with some sunshine at times, best in shelter, but still a few brief showers these turning to snow above 800m in the afternoon and evening. Still enough wind to blow existing lying snow on the upper slopes and bring a severe chill.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 10% overnight and at first in morning rising to 60% by afternoon.

Visibility: Occasionally poor in early hours with rain, summit snow and very poor in blizzard conditions. By day, mostly good away from cloud and showers. Briefly poor in showers and local reductions at height where wind lifts lying snow. Cloud extensive above 750m at first in morning, becoming more patchy and generally lifting to 900m in the afternoon.
